What was once out of reach could now be yours! Windswept Farm is an exquisite property in Windham New York offering a completely renovated 1800's home featuring luxury interior and exterior finishes. The property is encompassed by beautiful mountain views including those of Windham's slopes. 114 picturesque acres consists of the perfect combination of 27 acres of fenced pastures, evergreen forest, two water features, 2-story barn and a 3 car garage with large entertaining space above. Located in an absolutely ideal location, this property lends itself to many opportunities. Enjoy as your own full-time residence or weekend escape, create a beautiful new subdivision of homes (approximately 1, 850 ft of road frontage) or explore the possibilities of a glamping or event space. With the recent announcement of new ownership and the plans for future expansion and development at The Windham Mountain Resort, this property has incredible income and resale value! The possibilities are endless with this property - use this gorgeous property as your own full-time residence or weekend escape; create a beautiful new subdivision just 2.5 hours outside of NYC and 3 minutes from the resort, country club and winery, or explore the possibilities of a glamping or wedding venue/event space - no matter what you choose to do here, you will not be disappointed! The seller just made a significant price improvement on this property which could make what was one time out of reach, now a property to give serious consideration to.
