

ULSTER-Town of
127 Flower Hill, Kingston, NY, 12401

$985,000

<https://stevehubbardrealestate.com>

This beautiful, spacious Mid-Century home was totally renovated in 2020 with high end, top-quality materials, state-of-the-art facilities and extraordinary design. Both the main floor and lower level glow with natural light. The house is oriented on the North-South axis, optimizing sunrise across the golf course and sunset views over the Catskills. It has a large, comfortable living room and open-plan kitchen and dining room. All bedrooms have ample closet space and extra rooms provide options for an office, studio or storage. The on-demand boiler with radiant-heat flooring, HVAC cassette mini splits throughout provide additional heat and air conditioning. Electric and plumbing systems are completely new with closed-cell foam for insulation. Flower Hill is a quiet residential development adjacent to the Wiltwyck Golf Course, and a five-minute drive from the burgeoning Uptown Kingston scene of cafes, markets and shops. Don't miss this opportunity to own one of the finest representations of mid-century architecture in the Hudson Valley.

Addendum: Ring security system and keypad garage access. Seller can provide detailed information heating/cooling system zones. There is an on-demand boiler with radiant flooring, HVAC cassette mini-splits, closed cell insulation, all new electric and plumbing systems. Tiles are by famed 1960s Italian designer Richard Ginori. Listing agent discloses family relationship to seller.
