$375,000

Escape to your own slice of paradise in the Great Western Catskills. Nestled on 34.19 acres of pristine wilderness, this timeless four-season cabin with a separate Artist Studio beckons. Once featured in the hip real estate publication "Cabin Porn," this property is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. For the avid angler or hunter, enjoy both on the vast mountain property or take a short drive to the Beaver Kill or East Branch of the Delaware River to fish in one of the world's best technical dry fly fisheries. With the year-round babbling Carcass Brook running through the property, a spring-fed pond stocked with brook trout, hiking trails, and a seasonal waterfall, you'll find inspiration at every turn. Listed as a 2-bedroom in the records, the cabin has flexibility for five bedrooms (as it is currently set up) or use the additional sleeping rooms as a den or office. The cabin features a large open plan living area downstairs with a wood burning stove, kitchen with bluestone counter, full bath, wide plank hardwoods, and UV water filter. Surrounding the building is a wrap-around covered porch, separate artist studio, separate tool shed, clawfoot tub outdoors in the garden area with hot water accessible, and more amenities. Experience fun getaways filled with swimming, hiking, exploring, gardening, and grilling, or sit on the porch and watch the fireflies come out at dusk. Whether you seek adventure, serenity, or an income-producing opportunity, this cabin perfectly blends rustic charm and modern comfort.
